Junior Seminar

Tuesday, February 2, 2010

7:35 – 9:09 AM

North Branford Auditorium

This program will feature:

- Making Your College Search Count - a presentation that takes a practical look at college search, selection and application procedures, including information about:
  - Focusing on personal interests & needs
  - Gathering information during campus visits
  - Understanding the college selection process
  - Creating a personal college search that will lead to the best matches possible
- Information about accessing on-line college search programs
- A review of student transcripts
- Distribution of course registration materials for the 2010-2011 school year

We strongly encourage parents to attend this presentation with your child.

The process to determine what the best plan of action for your student will be after high school can be a difficult one and we are looking forward to working together with you and your son/daughter as he/she begins to explore different options.
